

Group task 8th September 2020. Sissel Treverket, Marianne Brude (Lena Ungdomsskole) og Solveig Hågå (Dovre ungdomsskole)

This is designed for 9th og 10th grade.

Sherman Alexi, “The absolute true story of a part time Indian”.

Prereading activity. Book cover, title, break the title into words (part time, Indian, diary, first person narrative etc)

Read the book: Teacher reads first chapter, can also use audiobook. Time limits.

Written tasks along the way, phrased in a way that it is possible for everybody to do it.

Everybody answers according to level on teams or class notebook.

Conversation about the book. First teacher pick a passage from the book, and the pupils respond to it in class. (Modeling)

Put pupils in groups of 3 or 4. Write topics, situations, pictures and questions from the book.

Every group gets a lot of notes and talk together about them. Discussions related to ethnic groups, choice of words etc. The groups record their conversation and share it with the teacher.

This would cover communication, culture, language learning and many others. Time ran out.....
